New Business

New Property Managers

Ms. Sattler introduced new Property Managers Ted McFarlin and Bob Birchard. Mr. Birchard announced that the Railroad Parking Lot was being re-striped. He also announced that the middle lane would no longer be used for parking. Mr. McFarlin shared that Bayley Beach would be replacing a fence that runs between Roton sharing the cost.

Old Business

Mr. Birchard and Mr. McFarlin gave an update on some Community Center projects that we necessary and overdue for completion:

- Swapping Out the old metal storage shed behind the Potting Shed with a new more attractive shed with more room and no monthly fee to rent.
- Investigating the sewer lines that run underneath the CC which are old and constantly get backed up. This is work that will need to be done this year.
- Addressing leaks in the Community Center roof which are mainly due to poor flashing against the chimneys
